This Ginko tree also found its place in a fortress. It is about 200 years old. Every year it delights us with its beauty.

Eco-Heritage Matters, a Green Erasmus+ Project

Dear Reader,

There is an extensive Photo Album of all the activities carried out by our project’s Eco-Clubs, a which they participated throughout the 2 years of the project “Eco-Heritage Matters”.

In fact, the purpose of this Photo Album is to provide you with a comprehensive compilation of this truly special project. This compilation will help you understand how amazing our project was.

That, in itself, is part of its legacy.

We really hope you enjoy looking at all the pictures of our Photo Album!

Love,
The Coordinators

Note: The front cover shows the legacy created by our students at the beginning of our project and the back cover shows the Erasmus+ logo.
The photo above is a project created by Carrie Phillips for the Portuguese Ministry. The figure you see, in fact, is a student member of the AREVGA Eco-Club.
